

I am emailing this to register my opposition to weakening Wisconsin's strong telemarketing do-not-call list. I am appalled that the federal government would step in on a matter already decided and handled very well by my home state. I love the do-not-call law the way it is and sincerely hope it is not weakened by federal interference.